Objectives

I can choose a research topic and begin with a question. I will complete online activities to familiarize myself and learn about the research process. Topics included in the unit will include terms and background information needed for research, such as how to write a research question, choose and narrow a topic, locate reliable resources, MLA formatting, paraphrasing, summarizing, and quoting, and giving credit for information by creating a works cited page.

I will choose an article or video related to my research topic.

I can write a works cited page using MLA format style
