Objectives

Objective / I Can:

- Identify and understand the use of complex characterization techniques in short fiction, specifically with regards to protagonists that aren't really heroic.
- Implement these techniques in original compositions.

Activities

Student Activities: (Resources, videos for students to use.)

Go to Teams Folder. Look for the assignment:

1. Compose an original, substantive short story. Take this as an opportunity to demonstrate everything you have learned about the art of the short story – use of details, development of complex yet believable characters, epiphany, irony, complex plot structures (e.g. nonlinear or modular structure), and interesting use of perspective. Please use MLA format guidelines. Revise and edit before submitting. Write at least 500 words.
2. Reflect on the writing process and your experience or process with producing short fiction. Submit a personal journal response, 100-300 words in length. MLA format.

Academic/Instructional Support

Schedule:

Monday-Wednesday: Compose short story.
